PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thank you one and all. I am so glad you enjoyed our impromptu show last month. Who knew the hidden talents in our group? Well, we all know that Kathy has a talent but who knew she had closets full of UFO's! And quiet Anne who does incredible art pieces (well, I knew about her)! And, I just bet you, there are lots and lots more hidden gems in this little group of ours. Don't hide your talents - bring them out and share with us. We do like to encourage each other. I was amazed that you would be interested in my tins and my funeral quilt. Speaking of which, if anyone comes across a fat quarter of soap fabric or one with toothbrushes on it, I would appreciate it if you would pick it up for me, as I haven't packed that yet.

Everything is running along smoothly with our guild. Barb is working hard at filling executive positions and doing a fine job. But, if you were thinking of doing something, I know she has a couple of empty spots. Publicity is an easy job to do and not too time-consuming if you are thinking of getting your feet wet. But, I have to warn you, being on the executive can be addictive. The other day, I found myself thinking of what job I could do in two years when I will have finished being past president. I mean, who wants to give up those nights out with the girls if they don't have to?!

It looks like another fun night at guild this month, so see you there.

Cheers,
Nancy

PROGRAM

This month we are happy to have Kathy K. Wylie as our guest speaker. Kathy has been quilting for approximately 12 years and began showing her work in 2002. Her first international entry earned her a third place ribbon.

Kathy is interested in various quilting techniques and her style is best described as contemporary traditional. Please visit her website at www.kathykwylie.com.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

At the April meeting the Community Outreach table will be at the back of the Willow Grove Room. Please come see us as this will be the last month we give out block kits. I will need them returned by June so that the quilt tops can be put together over the summer and be ready for quilting when we return in September.

As I had announced at the last meeting, McMaster University Hospital is looking for pillowcases to give to the children in their facility. The pattern would be similar to the one that was listed in March's newsletter. It takes 3/4 yard of the main fabric and 1/4 of contrasting fabric. They prefer brightly coloured fabric. Finished pillowcases should be given to Madeleine Parolin who is a member of our guild. If you cannot make one, you can donate fabric to Madeleine. She and a few other volunteers meet regularly to make these. You can also drop off the fabric or pillowcases to the Community Outreach table and I will make sure it is passed along to Madeleine.

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

May Bus Trip

You don't want to miss our May 8, 2010 bus trip to the "Goose on the Loose Shop Hop". There are only 6 seats left on our small private coach.

We start with a leisurely drive north to Country Concessions in Cookstown, from there we travel to Lilac Lane Quilts in Alliston. From Alliston we head to Cobwebs and Caviar in Shelburne and finish up our day in Markdale at Quilter's Lane. All these shops will be offering many surprises and specials, along with demonstrations and prizes. A passport will be given to all participants and as we visit these shops we have our passports stamped, which makes us eligible to win several great prizes. This is the 5th annual Goose on the Loose Shop Hop and it promises to be bigger and better than ever before. The four shops have all been carefully stocked with tons of new beautiful fabrics and kits, that you won't be able to resist.

We will all pack our own lunches and snacks to eat along the way, as we enjoy our ride and watch for the beautiful signs and colours of spring along the way.

The cost for all of this fun and games is $30.00 per person, non-refundable. Our last sign-up day will be at the April 13th meeting. Payment is to be made at the time of signing up to secure your place. You don't want to wait to sign-up, this day promises to be a great day with fellow quilters and friends, a day everyone will certainly enjoy.

Country Concessions is currently accepting children's pillowcases to donate to Sick Kids Hospital in Toronto. We will be delivering some pillowcases to Country Concessions when we stop there on our bus trip. For anyone on the bus that would like to contribute to this worthy cause, the instructions for sewing the pillowcases are below. If anyone can't participate in the bus trip, but would like to make and send a pillowcase with us, you can drop them off to us at our sign-up table and we will make sure they are delivered to the Country Concessions store.

LIBRARY

Fabric Embellishing: the basics and beyond

Ruth Chandler, Liz
Kettle, Heather
Thomas and Lauren
Vlcek

The authors have compiled a workbook of more than fifty techniques for surface design and embellishments that will serve as a primer for those who are beginning to explore art quilting and a valuable resource for more experienced quilters. The authors suggest trying each technique in an 8 x 10 format that can be bound together in a fabric technique workbook.

There are instructions for fabric manipulation techniques including weaving, fabric tucks, and bubbling and wrinkling fabric. The section on soft embellishments includes hand and machine embroidery, thread lace appliqué, needle-felting, foiling and more. In the section on hard embellishments you'll find instructions for beading, adding metal to projects, mixed media collage, fabric beads, and the effects of heating and melting on various materials.

Each technique is illustrated with a sample workbook page, a supply list, instructions and tips. If you tried a new technique each week, it would take a year to try everything, but what a journey that year would be!

Inchie Quilts

Nadine Ruggles

With quilts this small (just one inch square) we may never have any UFO's again! These tiny perfect little quilts grew out of the fabric postcard – artist trading card craze. The question is: what do you do with them? You can only make so many brooches and fridge magnets, and how many of these can you trade?

Nadine Ruggles has found the answer. She has designed 10 lovely wall quilts that are embellished by inchie. Some are designed from whole cloth (large floral) then divided into inch squares and embellished. Others are samplers designed to showcase your exquisite little treasures. There is an inchie art gallery quilt, a petit four quilt, a shadow box quilt, a flying geese quilt, and even a chess board and chess pieces.

The author gives detailed instructions on how to select your fabrics, construct, embellish and finish your inchie. I think this looks like great fun – I know I'm going to try this.
